

Dr. Vipin Sharma

Faculty & Director, Planning & Development, English Language Institute, Jazan University, Jazan(Saudi Arabia).

Ph.D (American Literature), M.Phil. (English) M.A. (English & Sociology) & PGDBM

Brief Profile

Dr. Vipin Sharma is presently working as Faculty and head of planning and Development at the English Language Institute, Jazan University, Jazan in Saudi Arabia. He has 26 years of experience in teaching, administration, and research. During this period, he has been involved in Undergraduate Teaching, Post Graduate Teaching, Academic Research, Monitoring and evaluation of various academic programs in different capacities, training & capacity building of the academic staff, etc. He has been closely associated with social work and has contributed to different social awareness work individually or as a member of committees or groups. He has more than 60 papers published in various international journals (WOS, Scopus, etc.), magazines, and edited books. He has written three books and edited six others. His areas of interest are English language teaching, CALL/MALL, Sociolinguistics, Business Communication, Technical Writing, Professional Development, ecocriticism, and American literature.